INDEX TO VOL. LXIII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ABB

ABBOTT (G. F.), Echoes of the Eleusinian Mysteries in Modern Greek Folklore, 651–660
Actors, playgoers, and 'dead-heads,' 305–310
Affonso Henriquez, King of Portugal, and his successors, 63–76
African natives, How to tempt them to work, 133–137, 386–397
Ali (Ameer), Anomalies of Civilisation: a Peril to India, 568–581
Allen (E. K.), The Public Trustee, 297–304
Amundsen (Captain) and the North-West Passage, 245–253
Anderson (Sir Robert), Criminals and Crime—a Rejoinder, 199–208
Angling in Hampshire, 787–798
Arnaouts, The, Muslim-Christians of Cyprus, 751–762
Atheism of Shelley, The, 794–810

BARKER (J. ELLIS), The Foreign Policy of the Emperor William II., 26–37; the Naval Policy of Germany, 835–851
Barnes (J. H.), The Drama of To-day and the Public's Attitude thereto, 305–310
Battleship-building in England and Germany, 835–851
Battleships, Modern, and their armaments, 908–925
Baughan (E. A.), 'The Ring' in English and Music-Drama of the Future, 438–446
Beer House Act and increase of drunkenness, 712–721
Belgian Congoland and native labour, 133–137, 386–397
Belgian Poet of Yesterday, A—Charles van Lerberghe, 411–427
Biblical criticism and the history of the Israelites, 811–818
Birch (Miss Una), The Comte de Saint-Germain, 111–126
Birchenough (Henry), James Knowles, 687–688

CHU

Birmingham University and the profession of journalism, 327–340
Board of Trade Commission on British-Canadian trade, 595–606
Bradley (Rose M.), Matty of Spitalfields, 398–410
Bread-winners and Free Trade, 173–185
British Empire, The, its Imperial mission, 151–165
British Navy, The, and the Estimates, 517–533
British Trader in Canada—an English-Canadian View, 595–606
British Two-Power Fleet, A, 485–500
Buxton (Noel), Diplomatic Dreams and the Future of Macedonia, 722–733

CAMPBELL (LADY MARY, Viscountess Coke), her Continental travels, 428–437
Canada, The British Trader in—an English-Canadian View, 595–606
Cape railways and State management, 501–516
Carmen Sylva, see Roumania (The Queen of)
Catholic doctrine and modern criticism, 311–326
Character, The relation of history to, 254–271
Charles the First and his Puritan libellers, 454–475
Cheyne (Dr. T. K.), The Decline of the Kingdom of Judah, 811–818
Childers (Hugh), The Pall Mall Murder of 1682, 272–284
Children and servants, rational methods of training, 447–453
Child's Recollections, A, 232–244
Church, 'Imperial Conferences' of the, and their Significance, 888–902
Churchill (Lord Randolph) on Cobdenite Free Trade, 869–871
Churchill (Lord Randolph) as a Tariff Reformer, 354–364

CHU

Churchill (Mr. Winston) on progress in Uganda, 394–395
Civilisation, Anomalies of: a Peril to India, 568–581
Cobdenite Free Trade and Tariff Reform, 869–887
Coke family, The, of Norfolk, 973–986
Coke (Lady Mary), Extracts from the Journal of, 428–437
Coke of Norfolk, Fresh Light on, 625–636
Collins (J. Churton), The Universities and a School of Journalism, 827–840
Commonwealth journalist, A, 454–464
Congo, French, and the negro labour question, 133–137, 386–397
Conway (Sir Martin), Suffragists, Peers, and the Crowd, 825–834
Cooper (J. Astley), Olympic Games, 1011–1021
Coopers Hill College and Indian forestry, 637–650
Corrance (Henry C.), A Vindication of Modernism, 311–326
Crackanthorpe (Montague), Eugenics as a Social Force, 962–972
Crawfurd (Oswald), Portugal, 62–79
Creighton (Mrs.), Women's Settlements, 607–613
Criminals and Crime: a Reply by an Ex-Prisoner, 80–89; a Rejoinder, 199–208
Cromer (Lord) and Orientals, 743–750
Cromer (Lord) on Gordon and the Gladstone Cabinet, 674–682
Cross (J. W.), James Knowles, 688–690
Curzon of Kedleston (Lord), The True Imperialism, 151–165
Cyprus, A Muslim-Christian Sect in, 751–762

DRAMA, National encouragement of the, 734–742
Drama of To-day, The, and the Public's Attitude thereto, 805–810
Drink, poverty, and the death-rate, 707–721
Dunraven (The Earl of), Labour and Tariff Reform, 173–185

EARTHQUAKE Theories, Some Recent, 144–150
Eastern and Western ideas, Divergence between, 743–750, 1022–1030
Eccentric Beauty,' An, of the Eighteenth Century, 771–786
Education Bill, The, and the Bishop of Manchester, 697–706
—— and Training Colleges, 566–567
—— and Voluntary Schools, 534–549

GRE

Educational Crisis, The, 534–567
Elementary Schools, Equality and, 1081–1088
Eleusinian Mysteries, Echoes of the, in Modern Greek Folklore, 651–660
Elkind (Dr. Louis), The Emperor William II. and Social Reform, 38–47
Empire Day, 1019–1021
Empire, The Heart Disease of the, 48–61
English trade and German rivalry, 885–851
Esher (Viscount), General Gordon: a Personal Reminiscence, 926–935
Eugenics as a Social Force, 962–972
Extremist's View of an Educational Compromise, An, 697–706

FAIRY Mythology, The, of Europe in its relation to Early History, 221–231
'Fairy Prince,' The, 138–143
Fear in the Home and the Household, 447–453
Fly-Fishing, 787–793
Forest conservation in India, 637–650
Free (Rev. Richard), Settlements or Unsettlements? 865–880; reply to, 607–613
Free Trade, as it affects wage-earners, 173–185
French lyrics by a Belgian poet, 411–427
French Protestantism and Huguenot enamel-workers, 98–110

GAY, the poet, and the Duchess of Queensberry, 773–786
German child's reminiscences, A, 232–244
German naval aspirations as affecting Denmark, Holland, and Great Britain, 26–37
German Social Democracy and the Kaiser, 38–47
Germany, The Naval Policy of, 835–851
Gill (Rev. H. V.), Some Recent Earthquake Theories, 144–150
Gods of Greece, The, 341
Goffin (M.) and native labour on the Congo, 133–137, 386–397
Gordon and the Gladstone Cabinet, Lord Cromer and, 674–682
Gordon (General): a Personal Reminiscence, 926–935
Gordon (General) and Zobeir Pasha, 936–948
Government under the party system, 18–25
Greece, The Gods of, 341

GRE

Greek Folklore, Modern, Echoes of the Eleusinian Mysteries in, 651–660
Gregory (Miss Alice), Midwifery as a Profession for Educated Women, 90–97

HAMPSHIRE trout-fishing, 787–793
Harrison (Frederic), James Knowles, 694–696
Hawkes (Arthur), The British Trader in Canada—an English-Canadian View, 595–606
Heart Disease of the Empire, The, 48–61
Henson (Canon Hensley), The Educational Crisis: A Cross-Bench View, 550–567
Herbert (Arthur Stewart), The Fairy Mythology of Europe in its Relation to Early History, 221–231
Heredity and race improvement, 962–972
Historical basis of fairy mythology, 221–231
History and Character, 254–271
Hoare (H. W.), The Impotence of Socialism, 186–198; reply to, 342–353; A Rejoinder, 661–673
Hodgson (W. Earl), Fly-Fishing, 787–793
Huguenot enamel-workers, 98–110
Hume (Major), his book Through Portugal reviewed, 62–79
Hurd (Archibald S.), A British Two-Power Fleet, 485–500
Hutchinson (James G.), Can the Working Classes Save?—A Workman's View, 285–296
Hyde (Lady Catherine), Duchess of Queensberry, 771–786

'IMPERIAL Conference' of the Church and its Significance, An 888–902
Imperial preference and fair trade, Lord Randolph Churchill's opinions, 354–364
Imperialism and the mission of the British Empire, 151–165
Independent Labour Party. Programme of the, 346–353
India, Conflict of Civilisations in, 1022–1030
India, Egypt, and Eastern and Western ideas, 743–750
Indian Forest Service, The Recruitment of the, 637–650
Indian natives and Western civilisation, 568–581
Inebriates and heredity, 966–969

LOU

Inebriates and the Licensing Bill, 582–594
Infants, Rearing of, Instruction to Mothers on, 763–770
In Memoriam: Sir James Knowles, 683–696, 984–986
Ireland, Boycotting and cattle-driving in, 48–61

JESSOPP (Dr.), A Great Norfolk House, 973–986
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), How to Make the Negro Work, 133–137; criticised, 386–397
Journalism, The Universities and a School of, 327–340
Judah, The Decline of the Kingdom of, 811–818

KEBBEL (T. E.), Parliament and Party, 18–25
Keene (H. G.), Conflict of Civilisations in India, 1022–1030
Khartoum, The New, 127–132
Knowles (James): a Tribute from some Friends, 683–696, 984–986
Knowles (Sir James), The Gods of Greece, 341
Königsmarck (Count Carl John) and the murder of Thomas Thynne, 272–284

LABOUR and Tariff Reform, 173–185
Labour party, The, and Socialist ideals, 186–198
Ladies' Settlements and parish clergymen, 365–380, 607–618
Lagden (Sir Godfrey), How to make the Negro Work, 386–397
Lathbury (D. C.), Equality and Elementary Schools, 1031–1038
Lerberghe (Charles van), A Belgian Poet of Yesterday, 411–427
Lethbridge (Sir Roper), Lord Randolph Churchill as a Tariff Reformer, 354–364; The Evolution of Tariff Reform in the Tory Party, 869–887
Liberal Government, The, and its critics, 1–17
Licensing Bill, The, and habitual drunkards, 582–594
Licensing Bill, The, Will it Promote Sobriety? 707–721
Lords, The House of, and the Cabinet, 831–834
— and Suffragists, 825–834
Louis XV. and Count Saint-Germain 111–126

MAC

MACDONALD (J. RAMSAY), The Impotence of Socialism : a Reply, 842–858; criticised, 859–868
Macedonia, Future of, Diplomatic Dreams and the, 722–733
McKenna's (Mr.) Education Bill, 534–567
Malcolm (Ian), The Heart Disease of the Empire, 48–61
Mallock (W. H.), Persuasive Socialism, 852–868
Manchester (Bishop of), An Extremist's View of an Educational Compromise, 697–706
Margoliouth (Mrs.), The Protection of Women : a Reply to Mrs. John Massie, 819–824
Marriott (J. A. R.), The 'Right to Work,' 999–1010
Massie (Mrs. John), A Woman's Plea against Woman Suffrage, 381–385; reply to, 819–824
Masterman (Charles F. G.), Politics in Transition, 1–17
Matty of Spitalfields, 398–410
Maxwell (Sir Herbert), James Knowles, 693–694
Men in Other Worlds, Are There? 614–624
Midwifery as a Profession for Educated Women, 90–97
Michell (Roland L. N.), A Muslim-Christian Sect in Cyprus, 751–762
Miéville (Sir Walter F.), The New Khartoum, 127–132
Military training and National defence, 476–484
Mitra (S. M.), Lord Cromer and Orientals, 743–750
'Modern Egypt,' Lord Cromer's book on, criticised, 743–750
Modernism, A Vindication of, 811–826
Monster Warship, The Cult of the, 903–925
Montgomery (H. J. B.), Criminals and Crime : a Reply by an Ex-Prisoner, 80–89; a rejoinder, 199–208
Moral teaching of Shakespeare, 209–220
Morocco, French methods of civilising, 577–581
Mothers, The St. Pancras School for, 763–770
Music-Drama of the Future, 'The Ring' and, 433–446
Muslim-Christian Sect in Cyprus, A, 751–762
Mysteries and folklore in ancient and modern Greece, 651–660
Mythology and the historical origin of fairies, 221–231

NAT

NATIONAL defence and military training, 476–484
National Theatre, The Question of a, 734–742
National Workshops experiment in France in 1848, 1003–1010
Naval Policy of Germany, The, 835–851
Naval supremacy, British, General Gordon's view of, 929–930
Navy, British, The, and its rivals, 485–500, 835–851
Navy Estimates and Naval Debates, The, 517–533
Negro, The, How to make him work, 133–137, 386–397
Nicholson (Arthur P.), Shelley 'Contra Mundum,' 794–810
Nisbet (J.), The Recruitment of the Indian Forest Service, 637–650
Norfolk House, A Great, 973–986
North-West Passage, The Real Hero of the, 245–255

OLD-AGE pensions, 971–972
— and encouragement of thrift, 285–296
Olympic Games, 1011–1021
'On Earth—Peace!' 166–172
Oriental and Western civilisations in India, 1022–1030
Orientals, Lord Cromer and, 743–750

PAGET (Lady), A Child's Recollections, 282–244
Pall Mall Murder, The, of 1682, 272–284
Pan-Anglican Congress, The, 898–902
Pan-Britannic athletic contests, 1011–1021
Pantomime Fairy, Story of a, 138–143
Parliament and Party, 18–25
Parliament, Is it a representative assembly? 825–834
Party system, Government under the, 18–25
Paul (Herbert), The Permanence of Wordsworth, 987–998
Peace, War, and Civilisation, 166–172
Pearson (Norman), An 'Eccentric Beauty' of the Eighteenth Century, 771–786
Petitot (Jean), Some New Information respecting, 98–110
Phelps (Miss Sydney K.), 'The Fairy Prince,' 138–143
Pictures and sculpture at the Salon and the Academy, 949–961
Planets, Other, and their inhabitants, 614–624
Poetry of Wordsworth, its permanence, 987–998

POL

Polar displacements and earthquakes, 144–150
Politics in Transition, 1–17
Portugal, 62–79
Pratt (Edwin A.), Sobriety by Act of Parliament, 582–594
Pro Deo et Patria, 476–484
Public Trustee, The, 297–304; Some Comments on, 465–475

QUEENSBERRY, The Duchess of, and the poet Gay, 778–786

RAILWAYS, The Nationalisation of: an Object-Lesson from the Cape, 501–516
Reich (Dr. Emil), History and Character, 254–271
Religious education in State schools, 550–567
Religious equality in elementary schools, 1031–1038
Ribblesdale (Lord), Conversations with Zobeir Pasha at Gibraltar, 936–948
'Right to Work,' The, 999–1010
Robinson (Dr. Louis), Are there Men in other Worlds? 614–624
Roscoe's correspondence with Coke of Holkham in Norfolk, 625–636
Roumania (The Queen of), 'On Earth —Peace!' 166–172
Roundell (Mrs. Charles), Extracts from the Journal of Lady Mary Coke, 428–437
Royal Academy, Reflections at the Salon and the, 949–961
Russell (Hon. Mrs. Bertrand), The St. Pancras School for Mothers, 763–770

SAINT-GERMAIN (The Comte de), 111–126
St. Pancras School for Mothers, The, 763–770
Salon, The Paris, and the Royal Academy, 949–961
Schooling (William), Some Comments on the Public Trustee, 465–475
Seismic phenomena and polar displacements, 144–150
Self-help for the working classes, 285–296
Settlements or Unsettlements? 365–380
Sex disabilities and privileges and woman's suffrage, 381–385
Shakspeare, The Morality of, 209–220
Shelley, 'Contra Mundum,' 794–810
Smythe (Alfred), The Real Hero of the North-West Passage, 245–255
Sobriety by Act of Parliament, 582–594

UNI

Social Reform, The Emperor William II. and, 38–47
Socialism and Eugenics, 969–972
Socialism, Persuasive, 852–868
Socialism, The Impotence of, 186–198; A Reply, 342–353; A Rejoinder, 661–673
Soudan, Progress in the, 127–132
Soudan, The, Gordon, and the Gladstone Government, 674–682
— Zobeir Pasha and General Gordon, 934, 936–948
Spitalfields waifs and efforts to reclaim them, 398–410
Stanley of Alderley (Lord), The Educational Crisis: Points for Elucidation in the Bill, 534–549
Statham (H. Heathcote), The Morality of Shakspeare, 209–220; Reflections at the Salon and the Royal Academy, 949–961
Stirling (Mrs.), Fresh Light on Coke of Norfolk, 625–636
Stoker (Bram), The Question of a National Theatre, 734–742
Suffragists, Peers, and the Crowd, 825–834
Sullivan (Sir Edward), A Belgian Poet of Yesterday, 411–427

TARIFF Reform and Lord Randolph Churchill, 354–364
Tariff Reform, Labour and, 173–185
Tariff Reform, The Evolution of, in the Tory Party, 869–887
Temperance, alcoholism, and the Licensing Bill, 582–594
Theatre, National, State support for a, 734–742
Thrift and old-age pensions, 285–296
Thynne (Thomas) of Longleat, Murder of, 272–284
Tory Party, The, and Tariff Reform, 869–887
Training Colleges and the Education Bill, 566–567
Training for midwives, 90–97
Trout in Hampshire and Scotland, 787–793
True Imperialism, The, 151–165
Trust Funds and the Public Trustee, 297–304, 465–475
Tulloch (Major-General Sir Alexander B.), 'Pro Deo et Patria,' 476–484
Turkey and Macedonia, 722–733

UGANDA under British rule, 394–395
Unemployed persons, State employment for, 999–1010
Universities, The, and a School of Journalism, 327–340

VOL

VOLUNTARY Schools and the Education Bill, 534–549

WAGNER'S 'Ring' in English, and the future of opera, 438–446
Walker (Henry), Journalist of the Commonwealth, 454–464
Warship, Monster, The Cult of the, 903–925
Wedmore (Frederick), James Knowles, 691–692
Welldon (Bishop), James Knowles, 688–686; An 'Imperial Conference' of the Church and its Significance, 888–902
Wells (Mr. H. G.), his Socialistic theories criticised, 852–858
White (Sir William H.), The Cult of the Monster Warship, 903–925
White (Sir William H.), The Navy Estimates and Naval Debates, 517–533
Whittaker (Sir Thomas P.), Will the Licensing Bill promote Sobriety? 707–721

ZOB

William II., The Emperor, and Social Reform, 38–47
William II., Emperor, The Foreign Policy of the, 26–37
Williams (J. B.), Henry Walker, Journalist of the Commonwealth, 454–464
Williamson (Dr. George C.), Some New Information respecting Jean Petitot, 98–110
Wills (Sir Alfred) on criminals, reply by an ex-prisoner, 80–89; defended, 199–208
Woman Suffrage, A Woman's Plea against, 881–885
Women's Settlements, 607–618
Women, The Protection of: a reply to Mrs. John Massie, 819–824
Wordsworth, The Permanence of, 987–998
Working Classes, The, Can they save?—A Workman's View, 285–296
'Wundermann, Der,' Count Saint-Germain, 111–126

ZOBEIR PASHA, Conversations with, at Gibraltar, 936–948

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., NEW-STREET SQUARE
LONDON